CAUSE

Mr. Brenes was released from the Bureau of Prisons (BOP) on March 4, 2008, and immediately entered the RRC where he currently resides. At sentencing, the Court ordered he remain in the RRC for up to 120 days until he is accepted into a residential drug treatment program of at least four months in length. His current RRC placement will expire July 1, 2008. Although Mr. Brenes has contacted numerous programs, his options are limited due to his mental health needs and limited reading and writing abilities. Therefore, it appears Mr. Brenes may require additional time to find a suitable program and participate in the intake activities. As such, it is recommended he be permitted to reside in an RRC for up to an additional 120 days to facilitate this process.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
